NOVEMBER BOARD BRIEFS

Here come the holidays and while we may wonder where the year went, getting together with family and friends makes it all worthwhile. Especially this year as it has been a very “interesting“ one for Heritage Hunt.

We have recovered from the Club House renovation from the fire suppression system water leaks and we have navigated around the PWSCA 24" force main line and pump system rebuild work. We are grateful for the patience the community has shown as we dealt and deal with these issues.

Of course November is also election season and our voting will start November 6 - December 4th. To learn more about the declared candidates, do plan to come meet them on November 3 at 10 am in the Ball Room. Details on ways to vote are in the Horn and any questions can be directed to Management

The Board has 2 meetings in November. The Working meeting is Monday November 6 at 9:30am in the Mt View Room with the General Meeting on Thursday November 16 at 1 pm in the Mt. View Room. These meetings will wrap up a lot of the Community business including laying out the 2024 Budget and assessment numbers. We are pleased that so many residents did attend budget sessions and got to ask their questions. We are all owners and we need to be involved.

The following resolutions were approved at the September 28th Board meeting. Due to Horn publishing dates they appear here a month late. For a faster review check the Board of Director's page on the HH website where minutes are posted within 2 weeks of any meeting.

- Approved The Goldklang Group to prepare the 2023 and 2024 audits and file the Association's 2023 and 2024 tax returns.
- Approve a change order of $2,000 for added tests required by PWC for permits related to our parking lot expansions.
- Approved a write off of $16,999.52 in uncollectable club accounts.
- Approved a write off of $11,340.00 for a no show event.

- Approved an annual contract in the amount of $10,095 to Metro Water for common area irrigation services.
- Approved moving 16 Repair and replacement projects and 3 Roads Reserve projects from 2023 to 2024.
- Approved awarding a contract to Walker Consultants for the inspection of the indoor pool ceiling at a cost of $12,800 from Reserves.
- Approved a sole source contact of $34,950 to Sydnor Hydro for the remediation of the well on Box Elder Pond that feeds Box Elder and is used for golf course irrigation.
- Approved Golf Course closure for Maintenance on 6 Mondays in October and November.
- Approved a revision to the LSTV charter to add an Appendix A related to use of LSTV volunteers and LSTV equipment.

Stay safe and well!! Happy Thanksgiving.

Kathy Vergano, HOA Board President

WINTERIZING YOUR HOSE BIBBS

OK – so what’s a hose bibb and why should I winterize it?

- Your hose bibb is an outside water faucet.
- Because it is outside, it and the exterior piping that leads to the inside of the building are subject to freezing which can lead to a quite expensive plumbing and, if left unrepaired long enough, structural damage to the home.

OK – so how do I do it?

On the inside of your house, in an area where there is exposed plumbing nearest to the exterior hose bibb there is a cut-off valve. In my home, a 1-1/2 floor Danbury without a basement, the cut-off valves are in the utility room and the master bath. Yours may be in another location.

My utility room cut-off valve looks like the image here. It is near the hot-water heater.

If you have a basement, at least one and perhaps two of the cut-off valves are in the basement.

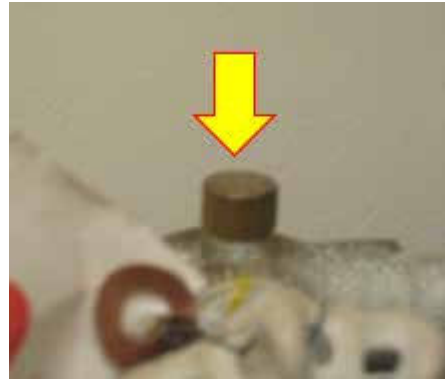

The first thing you do to winterize is to shut off the water from inside the house using the cut-off valve. The old saying “Righty tightly- lefty loosie” is true. Turn the knob clockwise (to the right) and you will turn off the outside water.

Go outside and turn on the hose bibb to check – if no water comes out you’ve done it correctly – if water comes out, try again. Turn the hose bibb off again.

Now that the water is turned off in both places it is time to purge the standing water from the system. Look for the relief knob (sometimes called a cap) on the cut-off valve. Mine looks like the image in the next column. It is on top of my cut-off valve.

Loosen the cap (remember lefty loosie) by turning the cap counterclockwise.

If the cap has a hole in it, loosen it about three turns.

Now go to the outside hose bibb and open it all the way (lefty). If the hose bib is inside the garage you might want to place a bucket or pan under it to catch the fluid that will drain out.

When that bibb is drained shut it, return to the inside turn-off valve and tighten the cap finger tight. If nothing comes out you should completely remove the cap on the shut-off valve on the inside

If there is no hole in the cap you will have to remove the cap all the way.

Be careful not to remove or lose the black O-Ring inside of the cap. They are hard to replace and you don’t want to end up with a $500 dollar replacement of the entire apparatus because you lost a 5-cent O-ring. The image here shows the O-ring.

In my Danbury, there is a rear hose bibb. The shut-off is under the sink nearest the windows in the Master Bath. The image on the left shows what it looks like. The red knob and relief cap on the shut-off valve are visible in the image.

In this one, you must clean out the area under the cut-off valve and put a pan or container under the cut-off valve. The residual water WILL drain into the area under the sink.

The cap in this case is on the side of the cut-off valve.

Go through the same steps

- Shut off the cut-off valve (clockwise-righty).
- Go outside and shut off hose bibb
- Go inside and remove the cap. CAREFUL – Don't lose the O-ring
- Go outside and open the hose bibb
- Wait about 5 minutes
- Close the hose bibb
- Go inside and replace the cap and screw it finger tight
- Clean up the water that missed the pan – in my case, the initial water is under pressure and usually misses the pan. A grunge towel comes in handy.

You may want to purchase protective covers for the outside hose bibs. They are cheap and, with proper draining of your hose bibb, you will have double protection.

Enjoy your house this winter.

ANOTHER HIDDEN COST OF ELECTRIC VEHICLES

Wow – the things that salespeople don't tell you. We learn all the benefits of electric vehicles but none of the hidden costs. Have you considered that electric vehicles may affect your homeowners and liability insurances?

Section 55.1-1823.1(C) of the Virginia Property Owners' Association Act, requires any lot owner installing an EV charger to indemnify and hold the Association harmless from all liability, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Association resulting from a claim arising out of the installation, maintenance, operation, or use of such electric charging station.

The law also enables the HOA to require that homeowners buy and maintain insurance to cover the indemnification including the HOA's attorney's fees.

Currently, Heritage Hunt does not do the latter clause because it is unnecessary under the law. We do suggest that you contact your insurance company about this coverage and any upgrades to your policy because you have an electric vehicle charging station. If you have a "bundle" from your insurance company where you have both homeowners and vehicle insurance it does not hurt to make sure that your liability and home insurance are consistent with your vehicular insurance. If you have different companies then it's up to you to align the policies.

This topic also made me remember some of the information I've been reading about electric vehicle fires lately. Aside from the over-hyped dangers you read in the media, these electric vehicles are extremely safe. Here are some of the basic rules for charging stations I've read.

- Make sure the charging station matches your vehicle. It is best to buy the charging station and the car as a package. This will give you the best, fastest charge and very much reduce the danger of fire or electrocution. Please do not buy no-name generic charging stations off the internet.
- Have the charger installed by a licensed electrician under permit from Prince William County.

Remember my article about how insurance works? My insurance company (one of the highest rated in the country) looks at risk and tries to transfer the liability to others. Basically, if the home improvement is required to be permitted by the county and was not then the loss is not covered.

Installation of a charging station needs to be performed by a licensed electrician under permit and inspected by the county.

“SPY PILOT: FRANCIS GARY POWERS, THE U-2 INCIDENT, AND A CONTROVERSIAL COLD WAR LEGACY.”

An international diplomatic crisis erupted in 1960 when the USSR shot down an American U-2 spy plane in Soviet Air Space and captured its pilot, Francis Gary Powers.

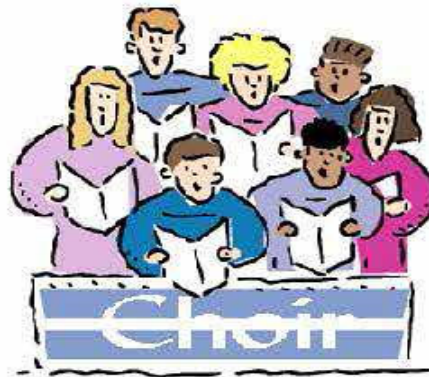

Do you remember this incident? Do you remember how President Eisenhower and the Soviets dealt with the political fallouts? Did the relationship between these two superpowers change during the Cold War? What happened to Gary Powers? Be ready to listen and relive with Gary Powers Jr., son of pilot Gary Powers, the story that kept this country on pins and needles, wondering: what will happen next?

Gary Powers Jr. is the Founder and Chairman Emeritus of The Cold War Museum established in 1996. He is also an Honorary Board Member of The International Spy Museum and a Past Board Member of the SAC (Strategic Air Command) Aerospace Museum. He lectures internationally and appears regularly on C-SPAN, the History, Discovery, and A & E Channels. He has worked with the National Park Service to identify historic Cold War sites for preservation.

Mr. Powers is the author of Enemy Territory (2022), Letters from a Soviet Prison (2017), and Spy Pilot (2019). In 2015, he consulted for a Steven Spielberg Cold War thriller, Bridge of Spies, about James Donovan who brokered the 1962 spy exchange between KGB spy Rudolph Abel and CIA U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, Sr. Mr. Powers holds a BA in Philosophy, and Master's Degrees in Public Administration and History. He is married and has one son.

CROSSROADS CONNECTION

Residents of Heritage Hunt, you are very generous donors! You offered your time and food dollars. Thank you to everyone who participated in the Crossroads Food Drive on September 19 by dropping off the fabulous four food items: Mac & cheese, granola bars, pretzels and oatmeal. We collected 4,570 boxes and various other food as well. Cash donations were also received and will allow for purchase of food when inventories shrink.

I learned that if you bring other nutritious foods, and they are too heavy for a child to carry in a backpack, that donation will be delivered to the Haymarket Food Pantry. Most students are still growing, so our goal is to protect them by managing the weight of what they carry home. Yes, I learned this personally—so now I know that heavy cans are best brought directly to our area's food pantries!

Crossroads has just added students at three new recipient schools as the needs continue to grow: Bristow Run, Gainesville Middle School, and T Clay Wood. As food costs continue to increase, so do the requests to Crossroads for assistance.

The shelves are currently well stocked at our new location in Gainesville where we leased space at the Atlantic Coast Cotton, a company known as ACC. Our new space is friendly, freshly painted, carpeted, and super clean—courtesy of many hours of work dedicated by our leaders and volunteers. If you wish to learn more or volunteer some time packing or delivering to our schools, please see crossroads-connection.org.

UPCOMING IMPORTANT DATES FOR PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

Many residents may be aware that Board of County Supervisors Chair Ann Wheeler has scheduled a Public Hearing and vote on all 3 Rezoning applications for the controversial Prince William Digital Gateway (PWDG) for Tuesday, December 12th at 2 PM.

The Planning Office Staff Report and recommendation will probably be released in late October or early November. A review of this report will enable us to identify and critique any omissions or shortcomings in the application in preparation for the Planning Commission Public Hearing.

What are our remaining options to affect the outcome of this vote?

On October 25th, the nearby Oak Valley HOA held a court hearing on their amended complaint to the Prince William Digital Gateway Comprehensive Plan Amendment. We may learn valuable information that could bolster arguments against the rezoning.

We will be asking for a strong community presence at the Board of County Supervisors hearing on December 12th where you can offer three minutes of comments on the PWDG proposal.

Should the PWDG Rezoning be approved, there is a 30-day window during which a legal challenge can be made.

Use the next six weeks to make your voice heard, in writing, and in the media. If you have not had an opportunity to vote yet, Early Voting is open through Saturday, November 4th. Election Day is November 7th.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS COMMITTEE

KEEPING HERITAGE HUNT SAFE - HOW WE ARE ORGANIZED

How do you cover over a mile-wide and mile and a half long community with 4,000 residents and visitors on a rolling plain cut in half by a small river? It ain't easy.

The Emergency Preparedness Committee (EPC) plans for the worst case, where Heritage Hunt loses electric power and the area's cellphone towers are taken out by a storm. Our Emergency Volunteers (EVs) will be using walkie-talkies to provide that vital link to obtain medical or other emergency assistance when telephone service stops functioning. However, the size and terrain limit the range of walkie-talkies. Therefore, we have set up three zones, each with a Zone Director and volunteers located in the Club House, Golf Facility, and the Marsh Mansion. As shown, the South Zone includes the areas South of the Little Bull Run Creek, the remaining areas are split by Heritage Hunt Drive, areas on the West side of the Drive are in the North-West Zone and those on the East are in the East Zone.

So how do we communicate across the Zones if walkie-talkies are so limited? Well, thanks to the good graces of the Heritage Hunt Ham Radio Club, Ham Radio Operators will be located in each Zone and in our Central Coordination Center (CCC) to send critical messages within Heritage Hunt as shown. More importantly, these operators can also use these powerful Ham Radios to request assistance from County Emergency Services. To ensure we can maintain this vital communication, the EPC has emergency generators located at each of these facilities along with the maps, radios, and other equipment necessary to continue operations for several days while we wait for electricity and cell service to be restored.

As always, the EPC continues to prepare to assist in keeping those at Heritage Hunt health and safe, but you have a part. Remember to add the T-Comm number (703) 743-2016 into all your phones as "T-Comm Heritage Hunt" so you will receive what could be lifesaving notifications, and remove and review the Emergency Guidance insert from the middle of the August Horn. You will see the EPC out next month, on December 2, 2023, as we place stakes at the fire hydrants to assist the fire department to locate them following a heavy snow.

Watching the news, we continue to see tragic events, hurricanes or blizzards, that result in needless loss of life because the community was inadequately prepared. The EPC, relying upon our EVs and members of the Ham Radio Club, are working to be prepared to effectively respond to these life threatening events here at Heritage Hunt. This requires your help. We want to encourage you to join us as a volunteer, either as an EV or Ham Radio Operator. By all of us working together during these emergencies, we can mitigate these events to prevent them from becoming tragic, thereby striving to better protect our neighbors, friends, and family.

You can reach the Emergency Preparedness Committee using the following email address: emergencypreparedness@heritagehunt.net

GARDEN CLUB

GREETINGS GARDENERS

Our favorite Fall event is coming up at Garden Club: On November 16 at 10:00 in the Marsh Mansion, Doug Burroughs of Flower Gallery will be wowing us and entertaining us again with his seasonal and holiday arrangements!

He usually presents us with 3 lovely and long-lasting arrangements in seasonal themes. The Garden Club sells chances to win one of these prized arrangements. This year, in order to raise funds for our favorite causes, we will be charging a minimum of $5 for 6 chances to win an arrangement. Everyone who attends must purchase at least $5 worth of chances. We will open this event to the whole community. You are guaranteed a fun and lighthearted event!

Garden Tip this month: Stop fertilizing and deadheading your roses and let them form rose hips. Hips provide color in the Fall-Winter garden and are a source of vitamin C for birds. Like many plants that produce fruit, the formation of rose hips sends a signal to the rose to go dormant for the season. Also, leave the leaves in place. They add valuable organic matter to the soil and provide nesting sites for beneficial insects and small wildlife. Wait to cut stems back until temps are consistently above 50 degrees F. Many bees, butterflies, and other pollinators shelter in stems during winter.

Looking forward to exciting end of year events and a New Year full of garden delights!

Elizabeth Katchmeric - President

GENEALOGY CLUB

The Genealogy Club will meet on Monday, Nov. 27, at 2 PM in the Mountain View room. The focus will be on Ancestry.com search tips. Our president, Bob Gawrelski, will lead this discussion, using a combination of video and examples. In addition, members will share how they have helped others – members, family, friends – with their family history research.

As we approach the Thanksgiving festivities, how did turkeys become so involved in our family gatherings? Take a look at this interesting Wikipedia description of the Thanksgiving dinner tradition and how it turned into a cherished holiday for all of us: <https://tinyurl.com/34a24ndt>. The domestic turkey we eat today is very different from the wild turkey consumed by the Pilgrims, Alexander Hamilton, and Benjamin Franklin.

Who might have been at your ancestors' holiday celebrations? Who was in their inner circle?

1. Neighbors (via censuses or maps)
2. Witnesses at major life events (baptisms, weddings, naturalization, land records, wills).

FamilySearch.org, a free website, is good for this kind of research.

3. Church records (Use old maps, county histories to find churches within 5 miles of their homes)
4. Fraternal Benefit Societies (e.g. Masons, Odd Fellows)
5. Social clubs
6. Cemeteries (people were often buried near relatives and friends, especially in small cemeteries)

Our club won't be meeting in December, but we are working on plans for 2024. Start the New Year by resolving to "welcome" your ancestors into your family through joining our club! The Genealogy Club serves two functions: helping members expand their knowledge of how to effectively research their ancestors and encouraging others embark on their own ancestral voyage. This very social "hobby" can lead to new friendships AND discovering previously unknown ancestors!

THE GIVING CIRCLE

"We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give."

Winston Churchill

Congratulations to all members of The Giving Circle of Heritage Hunt! October was the culmination of a year of giving for 185 members who should be immensely proud of the outcome!

During 2023, members pooled their individual donations to award larger grants to local charities in the categories of - food, clothing, shelter, literacy, physical health, and mental health. The result of their generosity was highlighted at an awards ceremony held on October 26th when The Giving Circle presented 17 local charities with grant checks totaling $91,700! With the presentation of the checks, grant totals awarded since inception are over $494,000.

Above: PowerPoint slide from October 26, 2023 meeting.

The 17 charities who received this year's grants were: ARTfactory, Assistance League of Northern VA, BEACON, Boxes of Basics, Catholic Charities of Arlington (in Manassas), CASA-CIS, Crossroads Connection, Habitat for Humanity Prince William, Haymarket Regional Food Pantry, House of Mercy, Literacy Volunteers of Prince William, NAMI-National Alliance on Mental Illness PWC, Project Lifesaver-PWC Sheriff's Office, Project Mend-A-House, Rainbow Therapeutic Riding Center, Piedmont Dispute Resolution Center, and SOWW- Serve our Willing Warriors.

In 2024, each charity will report back to The Giving Circle to describe exactly how their grant was spent and give examples of how the grant impacted the life of someone in need. These "real life stories" are reviewed by the Grants Committee and often shared in future Horn articles. These reports are required, if the charity is interested in applying for a grant application in the next year.

Members on-site at the Haymarket Regional Food Pantry

The Giving Circle also focuses on educational visits to some of the charities who have received grants. Members can see for themselves how donations are used to help others and that is always gratifying to see first-hand.

If you are not a member and would like to find out more, just send an email to Joanne Forrester at imbforrester@comcast.net. The process is easy, and you can become part of this philanthropic group of men and women for a pledge of only a "dollar a day" or more, in 2024.

If you are a member, consider talking to your neighbors and friends about The Giving Circle and asking them to join with you, today, for 2024. They will thank you for the suggestion, meet some fantastic people, and help the many people in need, around us. Lastly, members please do mark your calendars for the meeting shown below.

2024 DINE AROUND

The Heritage Hunt Dine Around is a great way to meet new neighbors or reconnect with fellow diners from the past. Please join us for a fun filled evening of conversation and great food.

The schedules for dining include: Four couples will meet four times in a calendar year starting in January 2024. Each couple will host one time making the main course and the other three guests will provide Appetizers, Salad or Dessert. If one of the couples is unable to attend then the Hostess may invite someone of their choosing to fill in for that dinner.

The groups will be organized at the end 2023 and you will be contacted by your group leader. Many of the groups like to get together and discuss dates, allergies and travel schedules. This helps get everyone on the same page.

What you need to do: Contact Janet or Lois by December 15 and let us know that you are interested. We will need your names, addresses, phone numbers, email address and allergies or things you do not eat. If you are a previous diner, please let us know if you wish to continue this year.

Lois and Janet, along with Howie, have been coordinating the dining program for many years and would like to turn it over to someone new. We, of course, will pass on historical information and help you get organized. We look forward to hearing from you!

HHWGA-18 LADIES OF LINKS NEWS

The final month of league and HH community golf competitions is reaching the final nail-biting stage.

At time of printing, Lillian and Bobbi carded lowest gross scores after the first day of league championship play. With two more competition days, the league championship remains up for grab. Will a past champion repeat and keep the annual rotating trophy or will there be a new champion?

In the race for best Ringer Board score, 4 golfers are within 2 strokes of one another – Bobbi, Libby, Lillian, and Michelle. These golfers are also among the top birdie -and one ace-makers. League ladies have shown a bit of touch on the greens this year as nearly half of the members carded at least one birdie. And there have been many chip-ins and league flight winners.

In the race to qualify for the year's final community golf tournament, Top Gun, currently the five golfers with the most qualifying points are Margaret, Joan D, Mary, Bobbi, and Rose Ann. Five more golfers will round out the Top Ten competitors for the shootout on October 27, and there is one more chance to earn qualifying points during the two-day Club Championship.

The HH Tri-County team displayed consistent, remarkable short game skill and was only a hair's breadth from placing in one of the top two positions in final Tri-County standings. Of the 324 total holes contested during 6 team matches, if Team HH had prevailed a mere 2.5 holes more each team match, rival Team Piedmont may have not hoisted the Tri-county 2023 trophy. Take a bow Team HH for your impeccable golf, exemplary sportsmanship, and flawless representation of league standards and the HH community.

LADIES 9-HOLE LEAGUE

The 2023 golf season is drawing to a close with October's shorter, cooler days. Our last league event this year is our awards luncheon on Wednesday, November 1. The board is planning an informative event with elections and info about next year so don't miss it!

September was busy with an excellent potluck at the Marsh Mansion. It was followed with corn hole games and croquet. There was serious competition but Ellie Rewald and Ronnie Cartwright came through as the winners. Thanks to the social committee for this fun event.

And last but not least, the GOW (Game of the Week) winners in September were Shirley LaMontaigne and Vicki Waffle.

See you all on November 1st!

Sheila Antonelli

GOLF COMMITTEE

In November, representatives from Up To Par and the Golf Committee will discuss the selection and installation of Tahoma 31 hybrid Bermuda grass to upgrade the fairways, tee boxes, and driving range of the HH golf course. Tahoma 31 has been engineered for the type of climate conditions more prevalent in Northern Virginia. Additionally, Tahoma 31 has been installed by courses looking to reduce resource expenses.

The entire HH community, but particularly the HH golfing members, should find these presentations informative and enlightening. It is expected that there will be three sessions of the same presentation. Dates will be announced in the E-Communicator.

The presentations will be conducted in the Clubhouse Mt. View Room which has limited seating capacity. Each meeting is open to resident and non-resident golf members as well as HH residents. Each session of the presentation will also be simultaneously broadcasted on the HH CCTV Channel.

The meetings will be one hour. Anyone planning to attend one of the sessions in the MVR, must register in advance. Questions by those in attendance must be submitted at the time of registration. UTP will be providing the particulars of the registration process to the community soon.

There will be a Q and A session following the live presentation addressing the pre-submitted questions. Any additional audience questions will be addressed only if time permits.

Family Caregiver Duties?

Caring for a loved one can be extremely stressful yet rewarding. But many family members aren't quite sure of all the duties and responsibilities that they will take on as a caregiver. When taking on this role, however, it's best to be as prepared as possible. To best care for your loved one, here's a short list of the most common family caregiver duties.

- Healthcare Proxy

You may need to become their proxy for health-related decisions.

- Personal Care

These tasks, often taken for granted, require sensitivity to maintain the dignity and comfort of your loved one.

- Medication Management

Seniors take the most prescription medications out of any age group. And many of these prescriptions can have adverse effects if not taken correctly.

For more information visit us at www.caring seniorservice.com/blog/comm on-caregiver-duties or scan the QR Code below.

GROUNDS COMMITTEE

I hope your Hallowe'en was full of treats, and light on the hobgoblins! Now we are facing November but we are not done with the garden yet. If you want to look forward to a pretty Spring show, now is the time to plant bulbs (or geophytes to give them their proper name). Here are some suggestions:

The following small, early flowering bulbs are all ephemeral and do well planted underneath deciduous trees as they flower before the tree leaves out and then disappear underground until next Spring. If left alone, they will all multiply naturally and are best if allowed to form colonies.

Snowdrops (Galanthus nivalis): One of the earliest to bloom, snowdrops can be seen poking up through the snow as early as February. They are sure to lift your spirits in the dark days of February with a promise of better days to come.

Winter Aconite (Eranthis hyemalis): Like the snowdrop, Winter Aconite blooms very early but has a yellow flower and is in the Buttercup family. At about 6" tall, they also do well in colonies but Aconites are poisonous so don't plant them where children or pets are likely to mess with them.

Scilla (Siberian or wood squill): Flowering in March, Scilla's stunning blue flowers are a delight and pair beautifully with miniature early flowering daffodils. Scilla are easy to grow and are very hardy. A lovely addition to your Spring garden.

Crocus: Commonly yellow or mauve, crocuses are the harbingers of Spring. They do well "en masse" and can be grown with miniature daffodils (or pansies if you are not troubled by deer browsing). Squirrels enjoy the bulbs (or corms actually) and will sometimes dig them up. Crocuses do not like to have a lot of mulch thrown on top of them so go easy on the amount you use in the Autumn.

Grape Hyacinth (Muscari): Topping out at about 9" grape hyacinth is easy to grow in full sun or part shade and looks good with crocuses, miniature daffodils, violas and pansies. Commonly blue, they can also bloom pink and occasionally white. They will naturalize but are easy to control.

The following prefer to be planted in open areas and generally flower later than the above selections.

Daffodils (Narcissus): Daffodils and Jonquils commonly flowering yellow can also be found in white, shades of orange and even occasionally pink. They are famously deer, rabbit and squirrel proof due to an alkaloid toxicity, which means they taste bad! They are long lived and they naturalize given the space, but they do need a long time for the foliage to die back and they need to be allowed to do this without being cut back because the bulb needs the nutrients to be re-absorbed. Plant them in amongst perennials which will grow up around the browning foliage to hide it, or plant your daffodil bulbs in pots and bury the pots in the Fall. Dig the pots up after the daffodils have flowered and put them in an inconspicuous place where they can be left to die back in peace. If you cut back the foliage before it has gone brown and limp, your daffodils will cease to flower.

Tulips: Lovely but need protection from deer and rabbits, and squirrels love the taste of the bulbs! Grow them in full sun with protection from browsing animals. Many colors/varieties to choose from.

Hyacinth: My personal favorite, hyacinths bloom in a variety of colors, are not eaten by anything and smell divine. They also die back relatively quickly, unlike daffodils. Plant them with pansies for a truly stunning Spring show. If a friend buys you potted hyacinths at Easter, plant them in your garden when they start to fade. They will return next Spring for you to enjoy again and again.

All bulbs like good soil. Add some compost to your soil when planting to lighten our dense clay and provide nutrients. Plant bulbs at least as deep as it says on the instructions. They will still find their way to the surface in the Spring and it lessens the likelihood of you digging them up by mistake when you forget where you planted them!

RICH BOHMER HIGHLIGHT

Like many residents of Heritage Hunt, Rich and his wife Roseann were drawn to the Northern Virginia area to be close to their kids and an expanding group of grandkids and settled into Heritage Hunt in April of 2007.

Working in New York City prior to moving to Virginia, he was able to obtain a transfer in 2007 from his employer to join Motorola's Federal Division in Maryland where his role as a Sales Engineer was a good fit and stayed with them until his retirement in late 2009.

Rich and Roseann took advantage of their new lifestyle and are frequent users of the many amenities that Heritage Hunt offers, especially the outdoor pool where Rich can be found with a good Clancy book. As a tap dancer, Roseann joined the HH High Steppers and has performed at most of the annual Holiday Shows in the Ballroom, as well as many performances in the local area. Rich takes advantage of the indoor pool and work-out facilities and hiking on the many beautiful trails in the area. Not being a golfer, Rich has been found at the driving range trying to understand why the ball never seems to go in the direction he is aiming. Rich and Roseann have taken golf lessons but decided to just enjoy the ambiance of the course. Rich and Roseann are also occasional Pickleball players and enjoy the game and the exercise.

Rich's tenure in the USAF (1965-1969) was during the Vietnam War and although his Squadron was deployed to Vietnam, he was at that time already deployed to Korea installing Radar Systems for the Korean Air Force and was deferred from this assignment. Feeling very blessed that he may have literally dodged a bullet, when returning from Korea, Rich and Roseann were married a year later. His last duty station was to Alaska to a remote Radar facility inside the Arctic Circle until his discharge in April of 1969.

Rich's civilian career started as a Licensed Radio technician and his first customer was the Yonkers, NY Police Department. As it turns out, all of his future customers during his 40-year civilian career were State, Local and Federal Law Enforcement agencies and Rich was a member of many Law Enforcement Trade Associations.

From his start as a technician, Rich served in many different roles over the course of his career. These included Field and Sales Engineering, Applications Specialist and Consultant. Most of his career was spent with Motorola who was on the cutting edge of communications technology. He was selected to be part of a leadership team during the transition from Analog to Digital communications which opened the door for the modern-day cellular phone systems.

Rich joined LSTV in 2021 being intrigued with all the gadgets. Having no experience with Lights, Sounds, Cameras or Projectors, he was grateful that experienced personnel were there to show him the way. Rich can be found in the Mountain View Room and the Marsh Mansion supporting clubs and was part of the team that launched the first "What's Happening in HH video series" for the Pickleball Club just a few months ago.

For those considering joining LSTV, Rich offers the following...Come to a meeting and meet the gang. Lots of good and dedicated people are there to help you understand what's involved. You can't break anything so don't be afraid of turning some knobs or using a touch panel. Essentially the technology we have does all the work. You just chose a Source (Camera, Laptop, Microphone/Mixer, Lighting Control panel) and chose a Destination (Projectors, Speakers and an assortment of lighting options). Some of your selections will be directly connected by a physical wire and some will be converted to Digital to travel across a network. Either way you just need to select a source and a destination. Hope to see you at a Monday meeting.

TENNIS NEWS

GOLD MEDAL WINS FOR HH TENNIS

Heritage Hunt Tennis players won a number of medals at the Northern Virginia Senior Olympics (NVSO) which held tennis singles and doubles in September. Entrants compete by age group. Heritage Hunt sent two singles players and two doubles teams to play in the 70's age group and one doubles team in the 80's age group. Players vie for gold, silver, and bronze medals for finishing first, second, and third. The competition is held at Wakefield Park in Annandale.

Heritage Hunt has been very successful at the NVSO tennis competition over the past five years. During that stretch, competing in the 70's age group in doubles, Pat McCarthy and Will Misner brought home two silver and three gold medals.

Hoping to continue this daunting tradition, six players took to the courts for the 2023 competition. In singles, Ron Hauk played the top group player in his first-round match and lost in a close effort. Lee Granger, our other singles competitor, played well and brought home the bronze medal.

In 70+ doubles, Lee Granger and Pete McVeigh easily won their first match. Ron Hauk and Bill Perry then won their match in a tie-breaker characterized by unorthodox play by their opponents. Pete and Lee then played Ron and Bill in an all-Heritage Hunt final, with Ron and Bill prevailing to win the gold in a very close contest.

Pat McCarthy and Chris Omohundro, our 80's group representatives, then proceeded to win easily to take home the gold, with an 8-0 win in the finals. "We really felt that we had to be ready and at the top of our game," Omohundro said after capturing the top spot in his division in his first time playing in the Senior Olympics.

"I am really happy that we had so much interest in the Senior Olympics and that we could test our abilities against others in Northern Virginia," said Pat. "We have a number of strong tennis players so we have an opportunity to have good tennis on a daily basis. The new courts as well as the Howard Smith Pavilion also helped in building a tennis program."

Congratulations to all the winners. With four gold, two silver, and one bronze; the Heritage Hunt NVSO tennis legacy continues.

"It is great to see the growth of Heritage Hunt tennis, although I am not surprised to see the wins due to the level of play that has become commonplace on our courts," noted Joe Clark, one of the viewers in the gallery, who could not play due to an injury. Clark had signed-up to play in the event but was sidelined as were Larry Byers and Les Kolman.

HERITAGE HUNT WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION (HHWO)

The month of November boasts great holidays – Veterans' Day and Thanksgiving. November observances are centered on what matters most: expressing thanks for life's many blessings, spending time with loving family and good friends, and enjoying truly delectable culinary treats.

In keeping with our Veterans' Day, we are pleased that our November Program speaker is Vice Admiral Nancy Elizabeth Brown of the United States Navy. The Vice Admiral had an extraordinary military career spanning 32 years. She retired in 2009 and we are most fortunate to have her as one of neighbors in HH. The Vice Admiral will speak about her inspiring career in the Department of Defense and discuss the barriers she was able to overcome during her impressive military career. During her last assignment, she served as the Director, Command Control Communications and Computer Systems for the Joint Chiefs of Staff, reporting directly to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs on all CA System matters within the Department of Defense.

Our Lunch Ladies are working diligently to provide a truly delicious lunch! The appetizer will be a cheese platter with fruit. The buffet will have a Thanksgiving flare and showcase a hearty fall salad, turkey breast with gravy, garlic mashed potatoes, and green beans almandine. And dessert we will savor a mouth-watering piece of pecan pie.

I hope all of you talented and crafty people are creating "gems" to donate to the HHWO Craft Table at the HH Fine Arts and Craft Show on November 15th. Mary Kay Dunn is looking forward to hearing from all of you to provide an item for our HHWO table.

Don't forget to buy your raffle tickets at HHWO meetings and the upcoming Craft Show for our 4 course Italian dinner. Who would not want a catered Italian dinner serving 8 people and delivered to their own home! The drawing will be held in December and the delicious meal will be delivered to your home at a mutually agreed upon time in February, March, or April.

PAUL BOYD

Mr. Paul Kyte Boyd, Ph. D, 88, of Gainesville, passed away September 14, 2023, at the UVA – Haymarket Medical Center.

Born March 6th, 1935, in Michigan, he was the son of the late John H. Boyd, M.D. and Pauline Kyte Boyd. On June 11, 1963, on the Campus of Notre Dame University in South Bend, IN, he married the former Phyllis M. Bloechel, who survives.

Paul began his lifelong commitment to Notre Dame by receiving a Bachelor's degree in 1958; a Master's degree in 1960; and a Ph. D in 1969, all in Electrical Engineering. He later worked for Atlantic Research, Rocket Dyne, and General Dynamics where he was involved in the development and operation of the cooling systems for the main engine of the command module of the Apollo Mission. He founded the Virginia Christian Academy ('67) while also serving as a professor at the University of the District of Columbia ('69) while completing his Ph. D.

Paul's interests included traveling and seeking new adventures with his wife Phyllis, playing cribbage, trivia games, and serving as a youth soccer coach and referee. He was also an avid golfer and Master Gardener who was always generous with his time and efforts to help others. His biggest passion by far was his commitment to his beloved Notre Dame University where he was a regular attendee of football games and class reunions.

Paul was an active participant in the retired men's golf league, and the garden club as a Master Gardener. He loved having the 14th fairway as his backyard and occasionally finding wayward balls in the bushes! He enjoyed taking walks and taking the grandchildren to the gazebo or to play bocce.

Paul was preceded in death by two brothers. Survivors include his beloved wife of 60 years, Phyllis Boyd; one daughter, Domini Anderson, and her husband Curt of Nokesville; two sons, James Boyd, and his wife Dena of Bristow; Andrew Boyd, and his wife Zoila of Chantilly; 1 sister, Brenda Camou of Arizona; 9 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

CECELIA PAYNE

Cecelia Lech Payne, 82, of Gainesville, VA, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on Thursday, October 12, 2023, after a brief illness. She was born on December 4, 1940, in Plainfield, NJ, to Peter and Anna Lech.

Known as "Cece," "Aunt Cece," "Grandma Cece," or "Great Grandma Cece," she put relationships with others at the center of her life. Named after Saint Cecelia, the patron saint of music, Cece loved to sing, and always had music playing in her home. As a child, she danced & sang while completing weekly chores.

While attending secretarial school, she was interviewed by a well-known but secretive federal agency, and after graduation took a job with the federal government and moved to Washington, DC. She devoted much energy to her work and contributed a great deal over her career, gaining many travel opportunities and lifelong friendships along the way. Cece continued to love travel and adventure and sought out knowledge of other cultures, languages, and religions, coming to these experiences with an open heart and mind. A patriot in the best sense of the word, Cecelia felt proud of her country, and her independent political ideas allowed space for all perspectives.

Cecelia was devoted to the Catholic Church and attended regularly, while nourishing her faith in many other ways. She most often encountered the divine in nature, basking in the sun at the beach, caring for wildlife and watching the birds in the back of her Heritage Hunt townhome, which she loved. She especially loved watching hummingbirds, and gardening in her backyard, planting a flower recently purchased (on sale, of course!) from Merrifield Gardens, her “happy place.” She also relished bicycling, and some of her happiest moments were cruising on two wheels.

She was wonderful at being present to the moment, and she particularly enjoyed getting to know little children and spending time with them one-on-one. Later in life, she found great meaning in working as a volunteer with several organizations dear to her heart, including So Others Might Eat (Washington, DC). She also volunteered weekly at the hospital, rocking to sleep babies born prematurely.

As a resident of Heritage Hunt, she made many treasured friends, many of whom were especially supportive of her as she moved into the final phase of her life. She loved water walking in the community pool, and participated in the Spanish Club, Dining Around, and community card games, among other activities.

In her passing, Cecelia leaves behind a loving family that was the center of her life, many of whom gather annually at the Outer Banks, a reunion initiated by Cece many years ago. She is survived by her two sons, Stephen Payne (Renee) and Bryan Payne (Faith), her granddaughter Cristina, grandsons Travis and Shawn, and great grandsons, Caleb and Colby, as well as a loving extended family.

A funeral mass for Cecelia will be held on November 11, 2023, 11am, at Holy Trinity Church in Gainesville, VA, with a repast afterward at Heritage Hunt, in the Clubhouse.

FINANCE Q&A:

Sponsored by: Godsey & Gibb Wealth Management

Q: HOW CAN BUNCHING MY CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS LOWER MY TAX BILL?

A: Bunching donations is when you make 2+ years of charitable contributions in a single year to increase your total itemized deductions to an amount greater than the standard deduction. In doing so, you are able to itemize deductions for that year, and then take the standard deduction in the following years.

Example:

Let's say you and your spouse file taxes as married, filing jointly. Each year, you give $15,000 to charity and have $10,000 in other itemized deductions. This would add up to $25,000 in total itemized deductions, which is less than the 2023 standard deduction of $27,700. If you did this every year, taking the standard deduction would make sense.

Now, if you were to bunch your charitable gifts for both 2023 and 2024 into 2023, your total 2023 itemized deductions would equate to $40,000 ($30,000 in charitable gifts and $10,000 in other deductions). This is greater than the 2023 standard deduction, thus allowing you to itemize your deductions for a larger deduction. As your 2024 expected charitable gift was made in 2023, your 2024 total itemized deductions would be $10,000, less than the 2024 projected standard deduction of $29,200. By using this approach, your total deductions for 2023 and 2024 would be $69,200 instead of $56,900. This is an increase of $12,300 in deductions over the same two years, simply by bunching your charitable contributions in one year.

CONCLUSION

There are many factors to take into account when deciding whether or not a bunching strategy is appropriate for you. If you are interested in how a bunching strategy may reduce your overall tax burden, please reach out to your tax advisor.

Client Review

“Dianne Lemanski is a fantastic Realtor! She has expert knowledge of the local real estate market and uses that knowledge to achieve maximum results for her clients. She helped me sell my home and recommended a pricing strategy that created an onslaught of showings resulting in a top dollar sale. Dianne was on top of every detail from beginning to end. If you’re buying or selling real estate, hire Dianne. You’ll be glad you did.”
